WALLACH WILL BE TURNED DOWN BY GOVERNOR FREAR

Refusal to Petition Expected Today—Healer
Has Already Offered His Services to Japanese Emperor.

J. Lor Wallach is to be turned down by Governor Frear. Such is the statement made yesterday by those who claim to be in the inside and know the decision to which the Governor has come. No intimation to this effect has been given out from the Robin's Egg, Blue chamber, but that Wallach and the petitioner who presented his claims to the Governor will be told within a day or two that their matter is out of his jurisdiction, being up to the Board of Health, is the report from supposedly good sources. The fact, too, that the petition asks that a committee of laymen should pick out the cases to be treated will probably be cited as another reason why the petition should be turned down.

It is quite likely that the answer of the Governor will be given to the petitioners today, in order to have it over with and the boards cleared for the meeting of the Board of Health tomorrow afternoon.

Such a turn of events has been provided for by Wallach, who will announce very shortly that he has placed his services at the disposal of the Mikado of Japan. It is expected by his friends that such an announcement will create a furor among the native Hawaiians here and strengthen him. Hope slipping from their grasp will be the more eagerly pursued. Even before the interview Wallach had with the Governor, and before the petition of the Home Rulers was drawn up, a letter had been sent to Consul General Saito in which his good offices were requested in bringing the healer's claims before the Japanese government.

The letter was very much along the line of claims made so often by Wallach. That he has a leprosy cure which he is willing to demonstrate to the satisfaction of medical science; that all he wants is a chance to prove himself, after which he will be ready to talk terms for a sale of his remedies.

Wallach has by no means given up hopes of being given a chance to try his little hypo and salve here, however. Prior to his application and petition he discussed the possibility of being turned down and although he expressed the greatest hopes of his mission to the Capitol being successful announced also the fact that if Governor Frear proved less the father of the people than he hoped he would go after him in the same merciless fashion he has gone after Pinkham. Whether the effect of this going after was to be more successful than it apparently has been on Pinkham Wallach made no prophecies.

"If Gov. Frear is not the man I expect he is and turns down the last hope of the poor Hawaiians, he will lose all the good will that the people have now for him and I can not answer for the consequences," said Wallach, as late ago as last Saturday, in the same interview in which he announced to the world his discoveries along the lines of instantaneous cures for bubonic and hook worms.

President Pinkham, of the Board of Health, will have an interview with Wallach at 10 o'clock this morning, at Pinkham's request. Whether Pinkham is to call Wallach down for styling him a windbag or is prepared to ask him officially for his hook-worm remedy has not been announced. The "Little Talk" of the healer in the Advertiser of Saturday, in which Pinkham is stated to have full knowledge of Wallach's open practice of medicine, is one of the matters most discussed at present in the whole Wallach situation, being regarded as even more astonishing than Wallach's fifteen-minute bubonic specific or his seven-hour-and-thirty-minute dose for near-consumption.

Politically the Notley faction is not to have all the advantages to be had from having Wallach. Yesterday it was stated that the Democrats, or at least the wing headed by Fred Weed, are going to shanghai the leader into their camp and have him as their stalking horse for the campaign. It is also darkly whispered that the Republicans are willing now to take up the healer and back him in his demands, rather than allow his halo to be shared off by the opposition. Wallach himself professes to be out of all politics in the matter entirely, his sole ambition being to prove to an expectant world the fact that he is not the fraud he has been dubbed.

ATKINSON IS FOR E. R. STACKABLE

In speaking of the fact that one of the afternoon papers had announced his name as a candidate for the office of Collector of Customs, ex-Secretary of the Territory A. L. C. Atkinson vigorously denied any intention of seeking the office. He said:

"Talk of this kind is foolish. I am not a candidate for the office of collector, and if you will look at the petition asking for the retention of E. R. Stackable in office, you will find my signature, and it is specially heavily underscored."

SUNDAY BASEBALL AND GATE MONEY

Ministerial Union Takes Strong
Ground Against the Latter.

At the meeting of the Ministerial Union held yesterday morning strong ground was taken against the proposal of the baseball enthusiasts to have Sunday games during the visit of the Coast nine here. The objection taken is not to Sunday games per se, such as those of the Kalamianole, the Riverside and the Kakaako leagues, where no charge is made and where the games are purely for sport and recreation. The objection is to Sunday games where the gate receipts are the principal motive and incentive.

The Rev. A. C. McKeever of the Christian church, Rev. David Crane of the Methodist church, and Rev. Frank Scudder of the Japanese work were elected to membership. The following officers for the year were elected: President, Rev. David Crane; secretary, Rev. Frank Scudder; chairman of the program committee, Rev. A. C. McKeever.

AUTO MEN DON'T LIKE SPEED LIMIT

Go on Record as Opposed to Any Fixed Rate—No New Law Required.

The members of the Automobile Club do not think much of the ordinance being put through by the Board of Supervisors putting a speed limit of eight miles an hour on cars within the city limits. In fact, the automobile owners and drivers do not think much of any speed-limit law, and went on record at their meeting last night to that effect. To stop heedless driving of a machine under the Territorial law regarding heedless and reckless driving is what they propose, and a petition to the Supervisors, asking them to cut out all speed limits or at least let the old ordinance alone will be circulated among the automobilists of the city and presented to the Supervisors at their next meeting.

There were present at the meeting of the Auto Club last night, in the Promotion Committee rooms, J. D. Kennedy, H. P. Wood, W. N. Patten, J. A. McCandless, R. Perkins, W. H. Baird, S. R. Jordan, George R. Carter, Dr. Herbert and Alexander Young, the last three by proxy. In the absence of the president, W. H. Baird, vice president, presided.

Mr. Kennedy made an oral report of the two endurance contests conducted, the one to Haleiwa, in which four machines finished with perfect scores, and the round-the-island trip. In view of the four finishers for the Haleiwa cup, it was stated that four shields would be substituted. The report referred to the action of the committee in barring J. Quinn from a perfect score in the first run for the Alexander Young trophy, he having stopped his machine on account of the accident to the Barneson car. It was the expressed sense of the meeting that the committee had been right in this decision, parallel cases being cited in mainland runs.

It was decided, however, that some changes in the rules for the run might be made with advantage, and the committee in charge was authorized to take the matter up with Mr. Young. One of the changes desired was the limiting the entrants to club members.

THE SPEED ORDINANCE.

Mr. Baird brought up the matter of the new county ordinance. He reported that arrangements had been made with him and Mr. Cooke to meet the special committee of the Supervisors to discuss the matter. They had already seen the chairman of the board and had a talk over the situation. He expressed himself as confident of reaching a satisfactory settlement of the matter.

"The position we take is that we are standing by the old ordinance," said Mr. Baird. "When a comparison is made of the number of accidents here and those on the mainland, I think it shows that we have a banner lot of automobilists here," remarked Mr. McCandless. "I agree with Mr. Baird as to there being no changes needed in the old law. The ordinance is a good one, but in a few cases, a very few indeed, it has not been enforced. But I think that as a club we should go on record."
